EVENTS & ACTIVITIES

SEPTEMBER 2020

British Sign Language Classes

FRIDAY 4TH SEPTEMBER 2:00pm

Our residents love learning new skills here at Lincroft Meadow, and recently they have been learning some of the basics of British Sign Language. So far, our residents have learnt the alphabet as well as introducing themselves and spelling their names. In this sign language activity, our residents will learn a bit more sign language that is sure to come in handy.

Mastermind Quiz

FRIDAY 11TH SEPTEMBER 2:00pm

To celebrate the anniversary of the quiz show Mastermind (premiering in 1972), both staff and residents will be invited into the chair to answer some questions, both general knowledge and on their specialist subject.

Country Music Day

THURSDAY 17TH SEPTEMBER All Day

To celebrate Country Music Day, we will be listening to country music throughout the day and having plenty of sing-alongs and dances for everyone to enjoy. From Hank Williams to Dolly Parton, there will be something for everyone to enjoy.

Alzheimer's Awareness Day

MONDAY 21ST SEPTEMBER All Day

The 21st September is Alzheimer's Awareness Day so our residents will be individually making a forget-me-knot flower out of felt, paper or tissue or drawing one. Then all the flowers will be combined onto a heart-shaped board which will be displayed in reception.

National Art in Care Homes' Day

THURSDAY 24TH SEPTEMBER All Day

To celebrate National Art in Care Homes' Day, we will be making a collage of fabric flowers which the residents will make into a flower meadow to be displayed. This is will be a beautiful way to demonstrate the individual talents and creativity of all our residents, whilst also creating one large piece of artwork to be displayed within our home.
